Dear Farah,

I received your letter yesterday. You wanted to know about a saint who was greatly devoted to his mother. Considering that, I am going to tell you the story of Bayazid today. Bayazid's mother was ill. One day, she suddenly woke up from her sleep and told Bayazid to give her a glass of water. The pitcher in their house was empty. So he planned to go outside to fetch water. His mother fell asleep when he came back with water from the stream. Then he stood beside his mother's bed until she woke up again. When his mother woke up she became happy. She blessed him from her heart.

No more today. Convey my salam to your mother.

Yours ever

Sabina
