Read the text and answer the questions 1, 2, 3 and 4.

My home district is Kishoreganj. It is about 145 kilometres from Dhaka. It is a district headquarters. The district has 8 municipalities, 13 upazilas, 108 unions and 1745 villages. The name Kishoreganj comes from the name of an old landlord known as Brojakishore Pramanik or Nandakishore Pramanik. The area of Kishoreganj municipality is about 10 square kilometres. The river Narasunda flows through the town.

Kishoreganj is a small town, but there are many important places in and around it. The largest Eid fairgrounds, called Solakia Eid Ground and the well-known Government Gurudayal College are in the town. People from many districts come to this place to celebrate Eid. The Pagla Mosque is also in my home district. Outside the town, you can visit the fort of Isah Khan at Jangal Bari. You can also see the Shah Muhammad Mosque at Egaroshindhur. Near the Fuleshwari River, you can see the Shiva Temple of Chandrabati.

Kishoreganj is also the home district of some famous people. Chandrabati, the first woman poet of Bangla literature, was born here. Two writers of children's literature, Upendro Kishore Roy Chowdhury and Sukumar Roy are also from here. The great painter Zainul Abedin comes from Kishoreganj, too. Syed Nazrul Islam, the first acting President of Bangladesh, is also from here. I love my home district!

Dear Nafisa,

Hope you are all well by the grace of Allah. Today I'm going to write you an interesting story about the love of a mother to her child.

One day two women quarrelled on the claim of a small boy. When they were brought before judge, the judge became confused hearing all the things. But he was very wise and after thinking deeply he found out the solution. He ordered to cut the baby into two parts and give each woman, one of the parts. Hearing the judge's order, the real mother screamed out and gave up her claim. She wanted the poor baby to live. Thus, the love of the real mother was recognised by the wise judge.

He gave the baby to the real mother and sent the other woman to jail.

No more today. Hope that, you have enjoyed the story. Please, write me something new.

Yours ever,

Maliha
